oOo

I am the yawning chasm through which the light cannot see.

My heart and mind conjoined, an ever hungry blackness in space.

My claws are the event horizon where the universe meets it's sweet and torturous fate.

I am the black and white dawn that arises.

When morning blue has been impaled upon the rod of desolation.

When the night passes trembling in dread, in desire.

I am the predator to your prey.

I am the insatiable thirst where water has died.

I am the lust of every age and tongue.

I am Darth Ravenyss.
